

PUBLIC LEDGER

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1897.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1892.

MAYSVILLE, KY., TUESDAY, JUNE 9, 1903.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

WHY HE CLIPPED.

I saw him take the paper, and Turn to the household page.
Then scan the columns up and down,
As one who all would gaze.

"Aha!" he muttered to himself.
"Here's 'How to Make Rice Fritters,'
And 'How to Utilize Cold Meat,'
And 'Home-made Stomach Bitters.'" Then from his pocket forth he took A pair of scissors small,
And severed from the printed page
The helpful hints and all.

He clipped "The Way to Scramble Eggs,"
And "How to Make Peach Butter,"
As well as half a dozen more.
"That's all,"—again his saunter.

"A thoughtful man," at once I mused.
"A man who cares for things;
Who loves the calm, contented song
The home-leaklet sings."

"Do you," I asked, "preserve those notes
So that your wife may eye them?"
"Not much," he growled, "I cut them out
So she won't get to try them."

MRS. HANNAH M. MULLINS.

Died, at her home in Limestone street at 9 o'clock last evening, Mrs. Hannah M. Mullins, after an illness of some five months.

Deceased was born January 9th, 1819, in Cork, Ireland, but for many, many years her home had been in Maysville, where the entire citizenship had learned to love and respect her.
Mrs. Mullins was one of the most noble Christian women with whose life Maysville has been blessed.

In late years, owing to the infirmities of her age, she had led a very quiet life, though keeping in close touch with the community around her. No appeal to her for aid was ever made in vain; in every undertaking for the betterment of mankind, in providing for those in the world less fortunate, Mrs. Mullins was among the first to respond with a most generous subscription. The extent of her philanthropy is known only by a few, but in Maysville alone
the families who have been clothed and sheltered from Mrs. Mullins's hand are unnumbered.
Her life was one of devotion to her fellow-residents, and truly worthy of example. The passing away of this pure woman is not only a loss to her immediate circle, but her demise is sincerely mourned by the entire city.

Mrs. Mullins was the widow of John Mullins,
at one time one of Maysville's foremost business men.

Her only near relative is a sister, a member of a religious order, Sisters of Mercy, in Limerick, Ireland.

Her relatives in this country are the nephew
and nieces of her husband, among them Mr.
John M. Hunt and Miss Katie Hunt of this city and Mrs. Sallie Bramel of the county.

The funeral will occur from St. Patrick's Church at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, and the remains will be laid to rest in the Cemetery at Washington.

rice Reid of New York were married Saturday

ingsburg and a brother of Mrs. Edwin Matthews of this city.

Lieutenant Power and the ushers, four artillery officers, appeared in full-dress uniform.
Mr. Joseph Power of Lexington brother of the groom, was best man.

Miss Reid was given away by her uncle, Colonel Ethan Allon.

cousin of the bride; Miss Lida Power of Flemingsburg, sister of the groom, and Miss Anne Gilbert and Miss Grace Imlach.

GOING TO PARIS!

Maysville Knight Templars Invited
to Join Trip Tomorrow.

The laying of the cornerstone of the new Courthouse at Paris tomorrow will be an important event in Bourbon's history.

The work is to be done under the auspices of the Masonic Fraternity and Maysville Commandery No. 10, K. T., has been invited to act as escort to Grand Master John W. Landrum. It is urged that as many Knights as possible go on the trip.

Fraters will leave here at 1:15 p. m. tomorrow in full uniform, as the parade will form immediately after the arrival of the train in Paris, and proceeds to the Courthouse.

The ceremonies will occur at 4 o'clock.
The First Regiment Band of Cincinnati has been engaged.

After the laying of the cornerstone Course de Leon Commandery, K. T., of Paris will hold an informal stag reception at Hotel Windsor for Knights only.

At 7:30 p. m. at their Temple the Master's Degree will be conferred, followed by a banquet.
A number of prominent people will be in attendance from different parts of the state.

It is expected some 300 Blue Lodge Masons and from 75 to 100 Templars will be in the escort in the parade of the Courthouse ceremonies.

It is hoped Maysville's delegation will be a large and representative one.

CHILDREN'S DAY.

Exercises at Millcreek Christian Church of a High Character.

To the efficient workers of the Millcreek Christian Church Sunday-school, the people of Mason county who are interested in this department are indebted for the most enthusiastic and successful work that has been accomplished
along the Sunday-school lines in Mason county.

This progressive school has just completed a Red and Blue Contest, which has been the means of bringing into the school children from homes to which the Sunday-school and its many advantages had heretofore been unknown. A great work has been accomplished in the community.

The exercises on Sunday evening were of a very high character and were proof of the fine training of all the children who took part.

The large Church room was filled to overflowing and the yard was in about the same condition.

The music and recitations were all of a high order and reflect much credit upon the training which the children had received. To make individual mention of the ones who took part would be unfair, because all did so well. The beloved Pastor Elder, John L. Shouse, was present and took part in the exercises.

May we not expect other schools to be equally as enthusiastic and progressive? Why not apply business principles to Church work and thus be enabled to bring into the Sunday-schools of Mason county every child and grown person within its bounds?

If you do not get THE LEDGER regularly and promptly, or wish it left at some place other than where you have been receiving it, please notify the office over Telephone No. 33. Don't tell the Editor on the street. He doesn't carry the paper. In fact, he doesn't know who the Carriers are. Besides, he has troubles of his own.

The contract has been let for a new $40,000

tary.

Never compare prices without comparing quality: you will find more difference in quality than you will in price. See our monuments and markers before buying elsewhere.

THE BIG REMOVAL SALE!

The public knows of our intended change in location---details are unnecessary. Moving is troublesome and expensive, therefore to reduce our stock to the minimum, we will begin Saturday, the 13th, the biggest Bargain Sale ever known in Maysville. Fifty-one years of honest merchandising stands for a good deal, doesn't it? That's the Hunt record under this roof. As you read details of The Big Removal Sale remember our highest aim is to preserve that record. There will be---

No inflated values.
No make-believe reductions.
No cotton mixtures for all wool.
No linen mixtures for all silk.
No old stock, dear at any price.
No cheap goods; quality goods at the lowest price is the watchword of this sale.
Things as they are, not as they seem, will be our inflexible law.

If the verdict of the Circuit Court at Charleston, W. Va., stands, the Chesapeake and Ohio will have to pay Mrs. C. W. Springle of that city $3,500 damages, because she was carried past her destination. She bought a ticket for a town near Charleston and was carried several miles further, and was then returned on a freight train. She sued for $5,000 damages.

Because of Ointments For Catarrh That Contain Mercury,
As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces, such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage
they will do is tenfold in the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury and is taken internally, actually reaching the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and is made in Toledo, O., by F. J. Cheney & Co.

GENUINE..... PANAMA HATS!

Don't delay. They are fast going out and we cannot get more this season; in fact, the last five dozen we got through special favor shown us by the factory that made them for us.

Notwithstanding it was prophesied by other Maysville shoe merchants that we would soon tire of advertising "Money Back or Another Pair if the Pair You Buy of Us Prove Unsatisfactory," we continue and always will sell our Shoes with above guarantee. There are two reasons why we do so: First, we buy the best Shoes in the world and sell them at legitimate prices; second,
we don't want anybody's money without giving value for it.

W. L. Douglas and Hanan & Son's are our brands.

THE BEE HIVE!

It's a Good Policy It's a Bad Policy

For any merchant to sell his old goods at a reduced price.
We believe that at half price it would even make him smile. We don't know! We never keep old goods from season to season.

BUT WE DO KNOW

That we sell "WANTED" merchandise at less prices
than any other store in Mason county.

We are only two years old, and the month of May shows the largest sales in the history of this house, larger, we think, than all the drygoods stores in Maysville together. What makes it so? THINK!

For any person to buy goods at any price if they are old, out of style or not needed. Did we ever offer in a sale old goods at any price? Were not all the bargains you bought here right in style? Did we ever misrepresent any article in our advertisements? Can't your child buy goods, and they do buy goods, as cheap as you could? ONE PRICE TO ALL AND MARKED IN PLAIN FIGURES IS OUR MOTTO. Honest merchandise
at honest prices makes us the fastest growing house in Kentucky.
Doesn't it? THINK.

Ladies and Children Invited.

All ladies and children who cannot stand the shocking strain of laxative syrups, cathartics, etc., are invited to try the famous Little Early Risers. They are different from all other pills. They do not purge the system. Even a double dose will not grip, weaken or sicken; many people call them the Easy Pill. W. H. Howell, Houston, Tex., says nothing better can be used for constipation, sick headache, etc. Bob Moore, Lafayette, Ind., says all others grip and sicken, while DeWitt's Little Early Risers do their work well and easy. Sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son.

It was very Knotty in The Louisville Post to continue publication after The C.-J. and Times had preached its funeral.

For a newspaper that isn't "going," The Louisville Evening Post appears to give The Courier-Journal and Times a good deal of pain in their little bowels.

MRS. HETTY GREEN, the richest if not the handsomest woman in the world, has gotten a renewal in New York of her permit to carry a gun. It should be borne in mind that her object is to protect her money.

CURTIS JETT, charged with the assassination of J. B. MARCUM, was himself quite recently the recipient of a pardon for murder at the hands of Governor BECKHAM. If CURT should by accident—it will never be intentionally done—be convicted for killing MARCUM, the Governor will probably be asked to turn him loose some more.

The Supreme Court of the District of Columbia has decided that the Postmaster General has absolute power to supervise the classification of mail matter. The decision is the result of a suit in which it was sought to compel the Department to carry certain publications as second-class matter, in opposition to the ruling of the Postmaster General. If mail matter now masquerading as second-class is compelled to pay the legitimate rate, the Government will have its earnings increased over $10,000,000 a year. Every publisher of a legitimate newspaper should favor the rigid enforcement of the law by shutting out mere advertising schemes and "yellow-back" literature.

BEYOND DOUBT.

These Facts Must Convince Every Maysville Reader.

The statement which follows tells the experience of a resident of Maysville. Incredulity cannot long exist about this testimony because it can easily be investigated.

Mr. I. L. McIlvain of 116 West Third street says: "When a man is relieved of annoyance and suffering for years, when he has exhausted all knowledge of household remedies and used medicines suggested by his friends and neighbors, when he has come to the conclusion that there is no cure, he naturally enthusiastically indorses the means that he employs to obtain relief. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drugstore for kidney and bladder complaint. I had no expectations of even checking my trouble, let alone curing it. Much to my surprise, and more to my gratification, the result obtained stamps the remedy as being more than up to the representations made for it."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Mailed by POSTER-MILBURN CO., Buffalo, N. Y. Sole Agents for the United States. Remember the name—DOAN'S—and take no substitute.

Mingle in happy union in the exquisite perfumes we carry. Scents are as difficult to blend into harmony as sounds. It takes almost as high an order of ability to make true perfumes as is required to write good music.

PRONOUNCES IT MOONSHINE.

A Flemingsburg Man's Say of the Wilkes Booth Romance.

The Courier-Journal recently printed a cock-and-bull story about a fraud named Moxley who said he was a pall-bearer at John Wilkes Booth's burial.

This drew out the following card from a well known citizen of Flemingsburg—

FLEMINGSBURG, KY., June 3.—I have in my possession a lock of hair cut from the head of John Wilkes Booth after he was slain at Garrett's barn, in Caroline county, Va. It is as black as a "raven's wing." This hair was given me by the Rev. R. B. Garrett, whose mother clipped it from the head of Wilkes Booth. Dr. Garrett is now filling the pulpit of a Portsmouth (Va.) Baptist Church. This clearly disproves the statement of pall-bearer Moxley, who claims in your issue of this date that the man buried for Booth had "reddish brown" hair. Dr. Garrett saw Booth die beyond question, and the statement to the effect that he was alive till February last is all moonshine. Yours truly,
JOHN W. HEFLIN.

Rev. R. B. Garrett was for several years Pastor of the First Baptist Church in this city. Booth was shot in his father's barn and died in the Garrett home.

Rev. Garrett was a good-sized boy at the time and remembers all the details with perfect clearness. He at one time related the entire story to The Ledger Man, and his statements are borne out by authentic history.

John Wilkes Booth, the assassin of Lincoln, is just as certainly dead as the original Annanias, although the latter left a much larger following.

River News

The Tacoma is the Pomeroy packet tonight.

The Bonanza will be down from Pomeroy tonight.

There is a continued fall in the river since yesterday, the late rains having no effect on the Ohio in a general way.

The body of Bon McCullon, who was drowned off the Defender some months ago, was found in the river at Evansville a few days ago.

The recently burned steamer L. H. Buhrman will be rebuilt and a No. 1 boat made of her. The hull and machinery are in good order and were not hurt much by the fire when she burned near Derby.

The Lee Line will hereafter serve light luncheon on its steamers at 11 a. m. and 4 p. m. each day to passengers in addition to the regular meals. This is an innovation in the business and will doubtless be appreciated by tourists.

HOME TESTIMONY

FOR HOME PEOPLE.

When you are asked to take the word of someone unknown and at a distance as to the value of an article it requires a stretch of faith. When you are told that someone in your own town—someone whom you know or can go and verify the statement—says the article is all it is claimed to be, it gives it at once the stamp of honesty. This is the principal purposed with Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. Home testimony for home people.

Mr. R. H. Wallace of No. 28 East Front street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"I have been for a long time troubled with severe nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and indigestion. Having read in the papers of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills I thought I would try them. I got a box at C. G. O'Connell's Drugstore and am pleased to say my nerves are strong and steady again—I sleep well—I am no longer bothered with those dizzy spells and my appetite and digestion are splendid. I am able as a consequence to recommend the medicine very highly to others who suffer in a like manner."

His Last Hope Realized.

From The Sentinel, Gbo, Montana.
In the first opening of Oklahoma to settlers in 1890 the Editor of this paper was among the many seekers after fortune who made the big race one fine day in April. During his traveling about and afterwards his camping upon his claim he encountered much bad water, which, together with the severe heat, gave him a very severe diarrhea, which it seemed almost impossible to check, and along in June the case became so bad he expected to die. One day one of his neighbors brought him one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a last hope. A big dose was given him while he was rolling about on the ground in great agony, and in a few minutes the case was repeated. The good effect of the medicine was soon noticed and within an hour the patient was taking his first sound sleep for a fortnight. That one little bottle worked a complete cure and he cannot help but feel grateful. The season for bowel disorders being at hand suggests this item. For sale by Jas. J. Wood & Son, Druggists.

CLOTHING TALK!

There is something about the Hart, Schaffner & Marx Clothing by which you may identify them even more certainly than the label. It goes into them before the label. It is a style, a quality, a tailored-by-hand touch to them, a harmony of fabrics, trimmings, etc., a thoroughbred look about them never found in other clothing. The fact that we can't define it doesn't make it any less real. You can see it without fully realizing what it is. We can't show it or tell you fully about it until you wear the clothes. Then we won't need to. This incomparable line is for men and confined to us.

But we have provided as well for the boys and children. We invite inspection and comparison of both goods and prices.

OUR MERCHANT TAILORING DEPARTMENT, under the supervision of Mr. Charles F. McNamara, is the only one in the city paying Union prices and having all work done at home. Ask to see one of our made-to-measure Suits. You can get them cheaper elsewhere, but not like ours.

Let us show you our new Shirts, new Hats, new Neckwear, etc., etc.

J. WESLEY LEE,

Cor. Second and Market Streets, MAYSVILLE, KY.

THIS SPACE BELONGS TO THE MAYSVILLE FOUNDRY..... ANDMACHINE COMPANY. BUILDERS OF THE FAMOUS STEEL RANGE.

THE BIGGEST ..BARGAIN.. OF THEM ALL!

Our resident buyer, Mr. F. Hays, purchased from one of the largest wholesale houses in America their entire stock of Ladies' Ready-to-Wear Hats. He got them very cheap, and we are able to offer them to the ladies of this city and vicinity at such a price that it is almost impossible to believe it. But seeing is believing. They will be on display Wednesday in our window.
